Details: Elephant Revival is a quintet of multi-instrumentalists from Nederland, Colorado, that blends elements of gypsy, Celtic, Americana and folk. Brought together by a sense of purpose, Elephant Revival communicates the importance of harmony among all living things and uses music to unite us in ways that no other medium can.

The band has twice won the Indie Acoustic Music Project's "Best CD of the Year" award in the category of "progressive edge" — in 2011 for their Ruff Shod Records release "Break in the Clouds," and in 2013 for their Thirty Tigers release "These Changing Skies."

Elephant Revival shares a commitment to stewardship of the planet and its inhabitants, working with organizations such as Conscious Alliance; Calling All Crows; Trees, Water & People, and other nonprofits that support humanitarian causes. The band's name was chosen for a pair of zoo elephants who, upon being separated after living together for 16 years, died soon after on the same day as each other.

Elephant Revival is Bonnie Paine (washboard, djembe, musical saw, stompbox), Bridget Law (fiddle, octave fiddle), Charlie Rose (banjo, pedal steel, guitar, horns, cello, double bass), Dango Rose (double bass, mandolin, banjo), and Daniel Rodriguez (guitar, banjo, double bass).
